3. Company's philosophy on Corporate Governance

Corporate Governance means the following to the Board of Directors:

- 1) Method by which the company practices its power to manage all its assets, and human and physical resources,
- 2) Management's appreciation of the shareholders' rights in their capacity as the owners of the company,
- 3) Compliance with the rules, procedures, values, and moral and professional behaviors in practice of management and business, and taking sound decisions regarding the affairs of the company,
- 4) Distribution of the rights and responsibilities between the different stakeholders and related parties in the company.

The Board of Directors strongly believes in following the fundamental values of Corporate Governance in managing the company, which are discipline, transparency, disclosure, independency, accountability, responsibility, fairness, social responsibility and accuracy in financial statements. The Board of Directors also tries to concentrate on the pillars of Corporate Governance, which are moral behavior, strengthening roles of stakeholders and related parties and risk management.

Moreover, the Board of Directors fully realizes that implementation of Corporate Governance in the company in a correct way does not mean mere respect of a group of rules and provisions, but it is also a culture and method in controlling the relationship between the shareholders, Board of Directors, Senior Executive Management, employees, and everyone dealing with the company, so that the shareholders ensure that the Management makes right use of their property to optimize profitability and achieve effective control.
